GRADUATES OF THE ACADEMY OF IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Vast Throng Witnesses the Closing Exercises-Diplomas, Medals and Certificates Distributed.

RECEIVE THEIR REWARDS

In the presence of a vast assemblage of friends and admirers the pupils of the Academy of the Immaculate Conception held their annual commencement exercises at the Lafayette Square Opera House yesterday afternoon. It was the thirty-sixth annual commencement of that venerable institution, and the opera house was crowded from the roof to the lower floor with a throng which gathered to extend congratulations not only to the many pupils participating, but to the Sisters of Charity of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, under whose abspices the academy is conducted. Medals of honor were bestowed upon four young ladies and over a hundred other younger pupils of the school. The program was an elaborate one, having been arranged with much care by Sister Mary Elizabeth, mother superior of the academy. There were fifteen numbers in all in the order of exercises, pleasingly in-terspersed with musical selections rendered by a chorus of pupils, individual scholars and a large orchestra. There were the usual salutatory and valedictory, and one of the most agreeable features was the vocal excroises of little girls and boys of about eight and ten years of age, who sang charmingly.

The diplomas were presented by Fathers Ryan and Beavan of the Church of the Im-maculate Conception. Each medal was attached to a long white satin ribbon, and as it was presented the recipient knelt before Father Ryan in the center of the stage while he placed the ribbon about her neck. Those who received medals of graduation were Misses Loretto Sullivan, Mary Man-gan, Mary E. V. Reilly and Margaret Car-

The Program. The program in full was as follows:

Sullivan; Paradise and the Peri, from "Lalla Rookh, senior elocution class; solo, Miss N. Harper, and chorus by senior vocalists. A Brilliant Pupil.

The valedictory, delivered by Miss Loretto Sullivan, preceded the last number. Miss Sullivan is not only the youngest, but graduated with the highest honors at the head of the class.
